

Instructions: The Idaho Transportation Department (ITD) requires a release of liability in order to authorize an event held along a state highway. Each adult participant of the Cataldo pilgrimage must complete and sign a “General Release” form (below), and parents must complete and sign a “General Release for Minor(s)” (see reverse) for any minor child(ren). Only those persons who have completed and signed a general release will be allowed to participate in the Cataldo Pilgrimage. In order to simplify the process of verifying the forms for each participant, please do not modify the dates on these forms, even if you are participating only one or two days. Please return this entire sheet along with your registration form. Additional forms are available through the church office.
